INDIA 2.0: VISION FOR INDIA 2047

Introductions

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav is an initiative of the Government of India to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of progressive India and the glorious history of its people, culture, and achievements. This Mahotsav is dedicated to the people of India who have not only been instrumental in bringing India thus far in its evolutionary journey but also hold within them the power and potential to enable Prime Minister Modi's vision of activating India 2.0, fueled by the spirit of Atmanirbhar Bharat. Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav is an embodiment of all that is progressive about India's socio-cultural, political, and economic identity.

Over the last few decades, several positive changes have taken place. We now have legal frameworks conferring a right to free education and food security, an increased number of villages being electrified, enhanced consciousness for cleanliness and personal hygiene owing to the Central Government's resolve under the able guidance of the Hon'ble Prime Minister.

However, there is one problem that continues to haunt us. The Economic growth has not sufficiently trickled down to the poor in the Country. The recently published 'World Inequality Report 2022' estimates that the top 10% and top 1% of the Country's population hold 57% and 22% of the total National Income respectively. Income inequality would result in increased rural indebtedness, lower purchasing power, and a reduction in rural aggregate demand.

This occasion allows us to look back at our Nation's journey. As a Nation, we have progressed remarkably during these 75 years, particularly these 71/2 years. The real gross domestic product increased from Rs 2.94 lakh Cr in 1950-51 to Rs.145.69 lakh Cr in 2019-20. India is now the 6th largest economy in the world. At this crucial juncture, when the road ahead offers many opportunities and poses many challenges, we lay special emphasis on two vital elements to unleash the full potential of our Nation, sustainable development and reduction of economic inequality.

It is imperative that while the needs of the present are met through economic progress, the ability of future generations to meet their needs should not be compromised. The energy sector plays a very key role in socio-economic development. Over the last 15 years, the Country's installed power generation capacity has increased from 1,27,423 MW to 3,84,116 MW. More particularly, the thermal power generation capacity has increased from 83,982 MW to 2,34,058 MW during the last 15 years, resulting in increased emissions of greenhouse gases, threatening future generations. We have an enormous responsibility to formulate policies that would eventually lead to phasing out of coal-based power generation and enhanced reliance on renewable sources for energy needs. However, given the intermittency associated with renewable power sources, storage solutions have to emerge. This is essential to ensure that the right balance is struck between meeting the power demand and achieving carbon neutrality.
